Man Held for Check Forgery Charged With Sending Black-Hand Letters.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Winchester, Va., June 19.—H. D. Fuller, cashier of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, and Taylor Hahn and Ross Swimley, merchants received black hand letters to-cay stating that their properties will be stating that their properties will be all the men externed to will be killed if they continue to prosecute charges of check forgery against James Kellican, now in his awaiting trial. Hahn, Swimley and other merchants have identified Kellican as the man who induced them to cash checks which were pronounced forgeries at the bank.

Eddie Johnson, colored, just out of jail, testified that Kellican gave him the letters and asked him to mail them. In addition, if he is to be tried for check forgery, Kellican will be prosecuted by the government.
